

a handsome star-fish allied to Luidia or Archaster, which has since been described by Mr. Edgar Smith, from specimens brought home by the Rev. Mr. Eaton, under the name of Leptychaster Kerguelenensis (Fig. 47).

FIG. 47. — Leptychaster Kerguelenensis, E. SMITH. Off Cape Maclear, Kerguelen Island.
Twice the natural size.

A well-grown example is from 100 to 120 mm. in diameter from tip to tip of the arms; the length of the arm is about